

Your details

Submission details

I am making this submission as

A member of the general public

Submission type

I am making a personal submission

Consent to make submission public

I would like this submission to remain anonymous

Share your experience or tell your story

Your story

Was affected by fires in Eden and previously lived in Vic during Black Friday fires, found that there was a correlation with the speed of the fires and the jet fuel and jet routes that traveled through that area, believes this could have a significant impact on the effects of the fires.

Terms of Reference (optional)

The Inquiry welcomes submissions that address the particular matters identified in its Terms of Reference.

Supporting documents or images

