

Your details

Submission details

I am making this submission as

A resident in a bushfire-affected area

Submission type

I am making a personal submission

Consent to make submission public

I would like this submission to remain anonymous

Share your experience or tell your story

Your story

Given the recent events in our local community it is clear that there needs to be a focus on the clearing excess vegetation and making sure this is maintained. As well as the maintenance of surrounding fire trails. A lot of resources were spent by our local RFS to clear vegetation and fire trails during the bush fire emergency and could have been perhaps better allocated to protecting property if this had been done in advance.

Terms of Reference (optional)

The Inquiry welcomes submissions that address the particular matters identified in its Terms of Reference.

Supporting documents or images
