Your story

We were very lucky. We have an 2 hectare property backing onto the popes glen reserve in Blackheath. It was only because we'd recently employed contractors to clear along our lower fence line that the fairies were able to gain good access and prevent the hat hill road fire heading further towards the township of Blackheath. They also prevented the loss of our home. We lost about 2 acres of bush in total after a second fire 2 days later due to reignition of a smouldering stump also caused considerable damage.
