Your story

I was caught short of time by the fires at Conjola Park. I had to run for my life. I also had to run from my dogs, leaving them behind. I lost chickens and geese. I have a few questions.

Why:

No one came door knocking to warn us

Water was turned off

Was there a back burn organised and authorised on 31/12/2020

Did the fire trucks leave us.

The above resulted in my wife and I losing everything. I am still angry for the position we are left in.

Regards

Peter Ruetman
