Terms of Reference (optional)

The Inquiry welcomes submissions that address the particular matters identified in its Terms of Reference

1.6 Any other matters Don't allow flood-prone flooded buildings to be rebuilt.

If they've flooded in the past they will likely flood again.

It is not reasonable for government and/or insurance companies (ie. citizen tax payers) to be expected to pick up the tab every time.

The definition of insanity is doing the same thing repeatedly expecting a different result.
