Your story

I have a large trailer worth of donations put together by my local area and myself that I would like to get to those affected by the floods. I've made several attempts to get the supplies up to the affected areas but due to my bust work schedule and other contributing factors it has not been an option. I would greatly appreciate it if some could get in contact with me to get these supplies up to the people that need them. I can be contacted on  or
