Your story Our story. We live on a property 28km out of Lismore. At 3pm the day before Lismore flooded we issued a personal warning to family and friends based on vast amount of water we had in farm and Back Ck. We were flooded in...we watched in horror as this water went to Lismore and prayed. The following days we had no landline. Minimal satellite internet and no mobile service. We had to literally stand on one leg and not move to get a txt message out. We currently pay $165 per month for Telstra service and $130 per month for Skymuster service. We were isolated for 4 days totally before we could get to Kyogle. Our small farm community relied on farmers to clear landslips on Kyogle Bentley Rd to enable a route through for services. We have vulnerable family members. We need to bring back local Intel
