factors

worse by moving fallen trees and heavy laden mud onto other trees which are holding up the road . When it rains this weight brings devastating landslides which are worse due to their mismanagement. Education is needed desperately to stop this lazy work as they are making our road significantly worse. The constant scraping of loose land, the pile up of debris will no doubt cause future landslides. We have witnessed this time and time again

1.2 Preparation and planning

Education is needed for council workers

1.3 Response to floods

A lot of this wouldn't have happened but for the ineptitude of workers

1.4 Transition from incident response to recovery

Still waiting for roads to be cleared
