Your story	This is an addenda to my previous submission under my name. From reading the documentation from the Mullumbimby Residents Association and from my attendance to a public meeting (Monday 16th May, Mullumbimby Ex Services Club) it would seem that all the current attention from this group is focused on post flood. They seem to

accept that flooding is a given event. But, there should be much more attention on controlling and mitigating such an event. It is impossible to control rainfall but attention must be given to controlling the result of that rainfall beyond modifying houses to cope, raising them, casing them in plastic and other thoughts that have been expressed.
